

Provence Itinerary 2021

■ May 2-14, 2021 ■ Group limited to 16

- Comfortable hotels and charming inns – all with private bath
- Transportation in nine-passenger van • Outstanding cuisine
- Newly opened replica of the Chauvet Cave, with reproductions of cave art dating back an estimated 32,000 years
- Château visits • Farm-fresh products of Provence
- The Abbey at Sénanque • Numerous shopping opportunities
- Mediterranean boat ride and old fishing port at Cassis
- The wines of southern France, including Châteauneuf-du-Pape
- A picnic featuring local produce • Fabulous outdoor markets
- Stunning perched villages of Provence – Gordes, Roussillon
- Gracious Aix-en-Provence, southern France's most elegant town

Tour cost – $4,295 per person • For a single room, add $550 • To book, call (800) 676-1247

TOUR SUMMARY Tour begins, ends at Marseille airport	FLY FROM U.S. – Leave April 30, arrive May 1 (overnight, Best Western Marseille Airport) TOUR BEGINS – At 9 a.m. Sunday, May 2, Best Western Marseille Airport TOUR ENDS – May 14, in the morning, at Marseille airport (you will fly home today) 12 TOUR NIGHTS • TOUR MEALS – Breakfast daily, plus eight lunches and dinners
--	---

■ Day 1 (Sunday, May 2)

We meet in the lobby of the Best Western Marseille Airport and plunge right into our Provence adventure. Just 90 minutes up the road is our first destination, Arles, founded by the Celts and later settled by soldiers retired from Rome's Sixth Legion. Arriving before noon, we stow our bags at our charming, quiet hotel, then walk through the old town before stopping for LUNCH. In the afternoon, we get to know Arles better, with a get-acquainted walking tour and a stop at one or more of the many sights the city has to offer. Perhaps you'd like to explore the Roman amphitheater, the cathedral and cloisters, or the Museum of Old Arles. OVERNIGHT – ARLES

■ Day 2 (Monday, May 3)

From Arles this morning we first visit the replica of a canal bridge that was the subject of several paintings by Van Gogh. Moving on, we come to delightful Uzès, where we stroll the colorful streets. After lunch we arrive at the soaring Roman aqueduct called the Pont du Gard, dating from the 1st century AD. It's incredibly well-preserved, with an informative museum to explain its significance and construction. We return to Arles in the late afternoon for free time, followed by DINNER in town. OVERNIGHT – ARLES

■ Day 3 (Tuesday, May 4)

We start a bit earlier today in order to get to the popular, and spectacular, village of les Baux-de-

Provence before the big tour buses arrive. You'll love the rustic cobbled streets and windswept castle ruins commanding a view of the valley. Late in the morning, we head to the pretty town of St. Rémy, which we explore and where we have lunch. In the afternoon, join us in visiting the asylum where Van Gogh lived in 1888-89, and to see the nearby ruined Roman town of Glanum. OVERNIGHT – ARLES

■ Day 4 (Wednesday, May 5)

From Arles this morning, we go north. Around 10:30 a.m. we arrive in old Avignon, still protected by its proud city walls and recalling the days in the 14th century when it was the seat of the Catholic church. We'll see as many of its attractions as time allows: the Palace of the Popes; the bridge called the Pont d'Avignon, celebrated in a French children's song; the Musée Angladon, with 19th century art and furnishings. You'll also enjoy wandering the animated streets and exploring the upscale shops. In the afternoon, we pass through Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Southern France's most renowned wine region. Later, we come to charming Vaison-la-Romaine and check in to our centre ville hotel. DINNER in town tonight. OVERNIGHT – VAISON-LA-ROMAINE

■ Day 5 (Thursday, May 6)

France is chock-full of lovely stone villages, and we visit two of the prettiest today: the perched village of Séguret, and lovely Gigondas (a fine red wine is made here). We also get to know Vaison-la-Romaine, three towns in one – Roman, medieval and modern. We explore the old streets of the medieval ville haute and admire the Roman-era excavations. OVERNIGHT – VAISON-LA-ROMAINE

■ Day 6 (Friday, May 7)

Very close to Rasteau, across a plain covered to the horizon in grape vines, lies Roman Orange. Here we visit two treasures: a triumphal arch, built by the Romans in 20 BC, and the town's magnificent Roman theater, dating from the reign of Caesar Augustus. It is one of the best-preserved in the world. After lunch, we visit the newly opened replica of the Chauvet-Pont-d'Arc Cave, displaying exact copies of images painted an estimated 32,000 years ago. DINNER in town. OVERNIGHT – VAISON-LA-ROMAINE

■ Day 7 (Saturday, May 8)

From Vaison today we push south to the fabled Lubéron region of Provence. Our first stop is the market town of Apt, to take in its well-regarded Saturday market. Then it's on to two spectacular hill villages – Bonnieux and Lacoste. Our final stop is in the village of Ménerbes, made famous by Peter Mayle in A Year in Provence. At day's end we return to Apt and check into our centre ville hotel. OVERNIGHT – APT

■ Day 8 (Sunday, May 9)

The fabled food and flea market at l'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue is first on today's agenda. Here, we'll shop for a picnic lunch, which we'll enjoy near town. Then it's on to the beautiful riverside village of Fontaine-de-Vaucluse. In springtime the source of the Sorgue River is at its peak – a thundering waterfall leaping from the base of a mighty cliff. Late in the day, as we make our way back to Apt, we may want to pause in rustic Oppède-le-Vieux, unlike any other village in this region. In the late 20th century it was largely abandoned, creating an atmospheric collection of romantically crumbling structures. DINNER in town. OVERNIGHT – APT

■ Day 9 (Monday, May 10)

Our first stop is the delightful perched village of Roussillon, an ochre marvel high on a cliff, where we go for a walk among the hills, pines and colorfully eroded cliffs. After LUNCH in Roussillon, we visit pretty Gordes, perched high above the Lubéron valley. Then it's on to the ancient Cistercian Abbey of Sénanque. This beautiful stone abbey lies in the midst of rugged hills and lavender fields. OVERNIGHT – APT

■ Day 10 (Tuesday, May 11)

Out of the country and into the city today, we leave Apt and proceed south, all the way to the Mediterranean at Cassis. Here, stroll the lively waterfront and enjoy a boat ride to visit three calanques – dramatic, cliff-lined inlets of the Mediterranean. Late in the day we arrive in beautiful Aix-en-Provence, our home for the next three nights. We check into our hotel, then stroll to the Cours Mirabeau, one of France's most stately main streets, for a drink. Later, enjoy free time in what may be southern France's most beautiful town, followed by DINNER in the art deco splendor of our hotel's restaurant. OVERNIGHT – AIX-EN-PROVENCE

■ Day 11 (Wednesday, May 12)

A walking tour of Aix begins the day. See the old Cathedral of St. Sauveur and several of Aix's many fountains, as well as the pedestrian-only shopping district, a medieval marvel. After a lunch break, we visit the city's fine-arts museum, the Granet, featuring paintings by Cézanne and other artists; and Cézanne's studio on a quiet, tree-lined street. OVERNIGHT – AIX-EN-PROVENCE

■ Day 12 (Thursday, May 13)

Late in the morning, after free time in Aix, we leave the city for the nearby perched village of Ventabren. Here, we enjoy a festive FAREWELL LUNCH. Later, back in Aix, do some last-minute shopping or sightseeing, or take time to prepare for tomorrow's departure. OVERNIGHT – AIX-EN-PROVENCE

■ Getaway Day (Friday, May 14)

It's time to say au revoir to Provence. Aix-en-Provence is only 30 minutes from the Marseille-Provence Airport, convenient for morning flights.

Notes

MEALS – Tour includes breakfast every day, as well as eight other meals (lunches and dinners), as indicated in BOLD CAPS on the itinerary.

OUR HOTELS

Hôtel Calendal, Arles
Hôtel Burrhus, Vaison-la-Romaine
Hôtel Ste. Anne, Apt
Hôtel St. Christophe, Aix-en-Provence

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS – Subject to availability.

ITINERARY – Details of this preliminary itinerary could change. A final itinerary will be issued closer to trip departure.

SIGHTSEEING – All sightseeing listed in itinerary is included as part of the tour.

TOUR PRICE of $4,295 per person assumes no significant decline in the value of the U.S. dollar vs. the euro, which may make a surcharge necessary. Ask us for details.